Subject: April 26, 2007 Meeting, Information Request, Notification that NDEP may Expend State Funds and Pursue Reimbursement of Costs

Facility: Maryland Square Site, 3661 S. Maryland Parkway
Las Vegas, Nevada
H-000086

Dear Mr. Jackson:

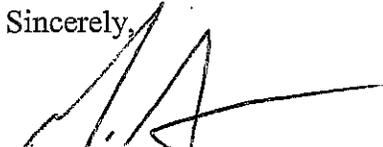

This letter memorializes information requests made by the Nevada Division of Environmental Protection (NDEP) during our April 26, 2007 meeting with DCI. As discussed during the meeting, the NDEP requests that DCI provide the following information and any supporting documentation to Mr. Bill Frey, Senior Deputy Attorney General, 100 N. Carson Street, Carson City, NV 89701:

- DCI Financial Statements;
- Settlement between DCI and the Herman Kishner Trust regarding the property at 3661 S. Maryland Parkway; and,
- Any additional information regarding potential historical releases at the former drycleaner at 3661 S. Maryland or other addresses in the vicinity 3661 S. Maryland Parkway.

The NDEP plans to move forward with investigation and mitigation, expending state funds as determined to be necessary, as provided by Nevada Revised Statutes (NRS) 459.755. This also letter informs you that, in the event of expenditure of state funds, the NDEP will request reimbursement or refer the matter to the State Attorney General to recover these funds from responsible parties, pursuant to NRS 459.760. The NDEP considers that DCI has continuing obligations as a sole or contributing responsible party for the contamination of soils and groundwater resulting from operations of Al Phillips the Cleaner at 3661 S. Maryland Parkway.

Please contact me at (775) 687-9373 or glovato@ndep.nv.gov if you have any questions regarding this letter.

Sincerely,

Greg Lovato, P.E.
Supervisor, Remediation and Certification Branch
