

Notice of Workshops

The Nevada Division of Environmental Protection (Division) will hold an official regulation amendment workshop on August 31, 2022 to solicit public comment and input on Legislative Council Bureau (LCB) Draft of Proposed Regulation R113-22 which sets forth a process for the State Environmental Commission to classify a surface water of the State or segment thereof as a water of extraordinary ecological, aesthetic or recreational value (EAW) and establishes provisions for antidegradation protection of Nevada surface water resources. The LCB Draft Proposed Regulation R113-22 is available at: <https://ndep.nv.gov/water/rivers-streams-lakes/water-quality-standards/current-and-past-actions/antideg>.

The workshop will be held virtually from the Bryan Building at 901 South Stewart Street, Carson City, NV in the Humboldt Conference Room, located on the 3rd Floor, South, and will be organized for participation in-person or virtually using the link provided for the meeting. The Humboldt Conference Room has a limited capacity, but the Division will attempt to accommodate all persons who wish to participate in-person. The workshops schedule is as follows:

August 31, 2022, 10:00am to 1:00pm

Public Workshop: LCB Draft Proposed Regulation R113-22

Event details:

8/31/2022, 10:00 AM - 8/31/2022, 1:00 PM

Time zone: (UTC-08:00) Pacific Time (US & Canada)

Register for Microsoft Teams Meeting

The workshop will provide an opportunity of all interested persons to provide comments, views or arguments related to the draft proposed regulation R113-22. The website link provided above can also be used to review comments made by stakeholders on the prior version of the proposed regulation and the Division's responses. Supporting documentation for R119-20: Nevada's Antidegradation Implementation Procedures and Nevada's Antidegradation Permit Writer's Guidance can also be located at the above website.

Public comments will be accepted during the workshops and written comments will be accepted until September 8, 2022.
